

How to Quickly Generate new Revenue for your Space

eVenues: The online marketplace that makes it a snap to rent smaller meeting and event space(s) directly to short-term renters

While the potential is there to make big money, most bars, restaurants, boutique hotels and small venues struggle to market their meeting and event spaces online. The competition is just too fierce.

The solution: Simply list your space on eVenues (the first online marketplace dedicated to small-scale rentals).

EXPOSE YOUR SPACES TO AN ALL-NEW AUDIENCE

The eVenues website receives thousands of inquiries every month from out-of-town business people, small businesses, high-tech startups, community groups, meeting planners and others – all searching for smaller, affordable spaces that can be located and booked quickly and easily.

WE DO ALL THE WORK. YOU MAKE ALL THE MONEY.

List your spaces on eVenues (it's free), and we'll give them top online visibility, we'll manage as much of the reservation process as you want, then we'll send you the rental revenue at the start of every month (minus a 10% to 20% service fee).

IT'S SO EASY TO USE (SERIOUSLY)

It only takes 10 minutes to create a full-color, top-quality online listing for your space(s). Updates (new photos, features, special offers, price changes, etc.) can be implemented with just a few clicks. Plus the optional space-management software (also free) can be synchronized with other general calendar systems.

YOU MAINTAIN TOTAL CONTROL

You control all the content in your listing. You decide whether or not your space can be booked online. You retain the ability to reject any prospective renters.

LOW-RISK, AND NO OBLIGATION ON YOUR PART

There's no cost (and no obligation) to create a listing and give eVenues a try. If ever you want to stop listing your space, you can take it offline with a single click.

SIMPLE STEPS

- 1 List your meeting and event space(s) with eVenues (it's FREE)
