

Got Empty Space?

eVenues helps rent meeting space online—by the hour or day.

In these tough economic times, businesses & consumers alike are rethinking how to do more with less. For many businesses holding unused or distressed physical space—whether desk space, a conference/board room, training room, or small event space—that space could be earning cash, today!

Introducing eVenues!

eVenues is an award-winning, online public marketplace and direct-booking service for meeting or event space. We help consumers quickly find and secure affordable, short-term meeting space—similar to other direct-booking services like Expedia.com.

Key Benefits

Easy Setup and No Upfront Fees

There is no cost or risk to listing your venue. eVenues can help you build a stunning space profile, show pricing and availability, and be LIVE in 10 minutes. eVenues provides all the tools to help: marketing, scheduling, space reservations, and payment—in one easy-to-use service.

Visibility & Direct-Booking Accessibility

By listing on eVenues, we can help boost your venue's rank in local and national web searches and sale conversions. By leveraging our world-class SEO and Private Link Network, you can expose your business to 2x more traffic. With ever-increasing smart-phone users, business can be closed faster. Your venue will also be showcased to our Social Networking partners.

Increase Your Bottom-line and Make $$$

Finally, eVenues can help subsidize expenses by creating a new revenue stream. By pricing and listing distressed space, businesses can begin to offset other costs. For example, by booking five, one-hour meetings per week at $50/hr, your business can earn an additional $1000 a month or $12,000 a year!

Most important, eVenues can help small businesses, art galleries, city & county government, and non-profits realize their full potential by helping to promote their distressed space to consumers and professionals.

"This site is too good to be true..."

– Cecil Robinson, Early Morning Software (customer)

Next Step?

Download the Getting Started Guide at <http://www.evenues.com/login.aspx> and list a space today!

Recent accolades:

The Seattle Times

TechCrunch

About.com

Frequent Asked Questions

Common questions of venues.

Q: Do I need to register in order to list my venue?

A: Yes – but unlike other listing or direct booking services, there is no subscription fee, contract or commitment to use eVenues. To register, simply create your venue profile with enticing room description, great photos, attractive pricing, and actual availability.

Q: What are the rules for posting your venue?

A: Our mission is to provide space seekers with easy access and real-time availability to a wide variety of venues at affordable prices. We don't limit the kinds of spaces we accept in the marketplace as long as they meet our profile and agree to keep their availability schedule up-to-date. eVenues reviews every profile for validity and confirms all contact information before making your profile live.

Q: How much does eVenues charge for use of the service?

A: It's FREE to list your profile and use our tools. When someone reserves your room, eVenues withholds a 13% commission. That's it.

Q: Is there a limit to the number of rooms/spaces that I can post?

A: No – eVenues can support managing multiple rooms per venue account. Each room has its own profile pricing and availability. New rooms can be published to the marketplace at any time.

Q: How long can I list my venue & spaces?

A: There is no limit to how long you keep your venue active. You may take your rooms offline at any time, similar to your eBay® account.

Q: How should I price my venue?

A: You should price your rooms or spaces to be attractive and competitive with other spaces. For example, a typical hourly rate for a boardroom space that holds 10 people might be $40, where as a typical full-day rate would be $300.

Q: How do I get paid for reservations?

A: eVenues remits all booking proceeds to venues at the beginning of each month via check. eVenues can also arrange a next-day wire payment for $5.00, similar to other online services like PayPal®.

Q: Can I use eVenues' calendar to track other appointments?

A: Yes – the eVenues calendar can track both incoming eVenues reservations, in addition to private appointments 7x24x365. When private meetings are added to the calendar, the time is automatically removed from the marketplace schedule.

Q: Does eVenues work with other room scheduling solutions?

A: Yes. eVenues provides a one-way sync between eVenues and Google® Calendar, Apple® iCal®, and Microsoft® Outlook™ or Exchange™.

Q: Does eVenues help promote my venue?

A: Absolutely. eVenues is venture funded and investing in world-class SEO/SEM, PPC advertising, PR, and local guerilla marketing techniques. We have also built a Private Link Network to ensure top local search results.

Q: Why should I trust eVenues?

A: eVenues has earned an "A–" by the Better Business Bureau®, champion of online trust. eVenues strives to operate a world-class mission-critical service for its Venue Provider partners. We are hosted and monitored by Wowrack in Seattle, Washington. Our SSL certificates are secure and monitored by GoDaddy® with every transaction. Additionally, our payment processing is tested and operated by Authorize.NET® & Wells Fargo Bank®.